Our latest information about nursing and midwifery in the UK

April 2022 to September 2022

We are the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC).

We keep the list of all the nurses and midwives who can work in the UK.

We also keep the list of all the nursing associates who can work in England.

Nurses help people who are sick, injured or need care.

Midwives help deliver babies.

Nursing associates are health staff who work in nursing teams in England.

This list is called a register.

Every 6 months we look at the information on our register and write a paper about it.

Between April 2022 and September 2022:

The number of nurses, midwives and nursing associates on our register grew by 13,144.

In total there are nearly 771,500 people on our register.

Just over 716,000 are nurses. Nearly 41,000 are midwives. Nearly 8,000 are nursing associates and nearly 7,000 are both nurses and midwives.

Nearly 180,500 people have been on our register for 5 years or less.

Over 7,500 said they are mixed race.

Over 84,000 of the nurses, midwives and nursing associates on our register are men.

Over 687,000 are women.

29 did not want to say.

Just over 5,500 said their gender is not the same as it was when they were born.

Covid-19 temporary register

---

We set up a new register to help during Covid-19. This is separate from our main register.

We asked nurses and midwives who had left our main register in the last 5 years to join.

We also asked some people from overseas to join.

These numbers are from 30 September 2022.

There are just over 13,000 people on the Covid-19 register:

Just over 12,000 are nurses

Just over 850 are midwives

And 165 are both.

Nearly 11,700 are women.

Nearly 1,400 are men.

12,500 are from the UK, of these just over 10,000 are from England.

Nearly 250 are from Europe

Just over 250 are from outside Europe.
