Decision and reasons on interim order

The panel decided to confirm the current interim suspension order.

Unless there has been a material change of circumstances, a panel will review the interim suspension order at an administrative meeting within the next six months. The reviewing panel will be invited by the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) to confirm the order at this meeting and Mrs Grey-Smith will be notified of that panel's decision in writing following that meeting.

Alternatively, Mrs Grey-Smith is entitled to have the interim suspension order reviewed at a hearing. This means that Mrs Grey-Smith will be able to attend and make representations, send a representative on her behalf or submit written representations about whether the order continues to be necessary. Mrs Grey-Smith must inform her case officer if she would like the interim suspension order to be reviewed at a hearing.

Even if Mrs Grey-Smith does not request a hearing, where there has been a material change of circumstances that might mean that the order should be revoked or replaced, a panel will review the order at a hearing to which Mrs Grey-Smith and her representative will be invited to attend.

The NMC Case Examiners are yet to decide whether there is a case to answer in relation to the allegations made against Mrs Grey-Smith. The NMC will write to Mrs Grey-Smith when the case is ready for the next stage of the fitness to practise process.

This decision will be confirmed to Mrs Grey-Smith in writing.

That concludes this determination.
